Engaging | Educational | Inspiring | Empowering

Since his brush with stage-4 cancer; Mario is one of only a few hundred professionals world-wide that has earned a coaching and facilitators certification with Bob Proctor's (of The Secret) world-wide organization.

"It was the greatest challenge of my life. When I was diagnosed I wasn't scared nor did I have thoughts of dying, all I could think about was leaving my wife and three boys behind and what I'm going to do next to beat this dis-ease. I began to feel disappointed in myself for not making a bigger difference and greater strides for the betterment of mankind. I was so determined to survive I immediately started building some wonderful visions around my newly discovered purpose and focused on them continuously.

Undergoing several major operations, chemotherapy, and radiation, the pain was unbearable at times but I kept holding on to my purpose and vision telling myself that tomorrow will be a better day.

Through the recovery process I was forced to sell the home, the jewelry, and deplete the savings to get through this challenging time. I practically lost everything. But through it all, I always kept the faith and perceived this great challenge as a turning point, a blessing and gift, in my own life and most importantly; the lives of others."

Mario's newest book project is 'Discover Your Inner Strengths.' He was one of only twelve speakers chosen from a nation-wide search to co-author the book along with Brian Tracy (Million Dollar Habits), Stephen Covey (Seven Habits of Highly Effective People), and Ken Blanchard (One Minute Manager); expected to be released early fall 2008.
